

To all dog enthusiasts!

The Lenape Boston Terrier Club is pleased to have Sharon Sakson; journalist, new television producer and an AKC dog show judge speak at the May 23rd, 2010 monthly meeting. The meeting will be at the Elk's Club in Stirling, NJ at 2:00 PM.

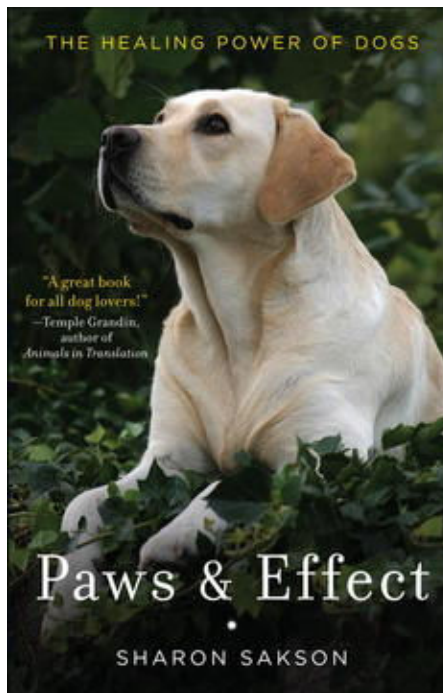

Sharon earned an MFA in creative writing from the New School. She lives in Princeton, NJ. She will discuss the heartwarming and informative account of the astonishing ways dogs heal humans. Sharon will tell us about how dogs help to heal the mind and the body.

She is the author of "Paws and Effect" and several other books which will be available that day for purchase and autographing.

She is the breeder of champion Whippets and Brussels Griffons.

Please come out and join the members of the Lenape Boston Terrier Club and listen to Sharon's enlightening experiences!! This is a free lecture.

Any Questions please call Denice at 610-847-5344 lives in Princeton, NJ. She will discuss the heartwarming and informative account of the astonishing ways dogs heal humans. Sharon will tell us about how dogs help to heal the mind and the body. She is the author of "Paws and Effect" and several other books which will be available that day for purchase and autographing.